

Irish Lecture Series

Concordia Irish Studies

Presents

A LECTURE BY

ROD STONEMAN

CHIEF EXECUTIVE
THE IRISH FILM BOARD

entitled

LET A THOUSAND FLOWERS BLOOM – RADICAL PLURALISM IN NEW IRISH CINEMA

DATE: THURSDAY, APRIL 24, 2003

TIME: 8:30 PM

PLACE: DESÈVE CINEMA
1400 de Maisonneuve West

ADMISSION: FREE

INFORMATION: 848-8711

Since 1993, Rod Stoneman has been the Chief Executive of Bord Scannán na hÉireann / the Irish Film Board. Prior to this appointment, he spent 10 years as the Deputy Commissioning Editor in Independent Film and Video at Channel Four Television. Mr. Stoneman is an ex-independent producer/director and his television credits include the following: Ireland – The Silent Voices (1983), Italy – The Image Business (1984), and Between Object and Image (1986).